* Apologies for the delay on this product. We received a delivery this week but after closer inspection, they were not to our Quality Department's standard and therefore the delivery was rejected. However, the next delivery is expected next week. Thank you for bearing with us.

 With reference to the ALB35, due to a world-wide DRAM shortage, this product has been delayed by a further month. However, every effort is being made to ensure that the next consignment arrives on time avoiding further difficulties with your customers. We will update you if there are any further drastic changes.
