Each Acorn R140 includes a 12-month support package from Granada Microcare. This includes telephone hot-line assistance and diagnostics on both hardware and operating system level software from their Bedford helpdesk. On-site maintenance and warranty is also included with an 8 working-hour response. Incremental software updates, as released, are also distributed by Granada.

Granada Microcare provide wide coverage from their ten regional service centres, and work closely with the dealers to provide a full support environment for every Acorn R140 user.
