

SALES NEWS Issue 54

28th September 1992

Dear Dealer

Discontinued Products

The following products have been discontinued from our product range therefore all outstanding orders have been cancelled:

AKB29 The Learning Curve
AKA44 PC Emulator 1.7
SKL80 Ansi C Release 3
SKD17 ISO Pascal Manual
SKL71 ISO Pascal
SKL72 Fortran 77

A4 Portable

Until December 31st 1992, Acorn is offering the PC Emulator, free of charge, with the A4 4M HD, 60 System (AKB64). When you receive deliveries, the documentation will show AKB66, which is the product code of this special offer.

DTP Pack

Acorn is no longer able to supply the DTP Pack, SKB69. However, to fulfil outstanding orders, Acorn is able to supply packs from The Learning Curve at a reduced retail price of £119, less your normal software discount. The product code is SKB99 and SKD99 for the manual. This includes all contents but is supplied in shrink wrap and not boxes. Please inform me if you wish to cancel your orders as soon as possible.

A5000 Econet and Network Systems

Please note that Acorn have been able to bring forward deliveries of the above systems, ALB28 and ALB27 and are available as follows: ALB28 - in stock now, AKB27 - early October. Please submit your orders now to ensure early allocation.

Yours faithfully
