

Home Office with the Risc PC

You will find two extra items in the Home Office pack:

- Upgrade to EasiWriter for the Risc PC
- Upgrade to DataPower, also for the Risc PC.

These upgrades each take the form of an A5 leaflet and a floppy disc.

You will need these upgrades if you are running Home Office on a Risc PC; even if you are not, the upgrades will give you some extra functionality with the programs.

The upgrade packs include instructions telling you how to use them:
